BENEFITS

A practical resource kit that's instantly useable and will assist:

- Increased long term memory retention and recall
- Increased speed and quality of learning
- Changed attitudes towards learning
- Greater motivation and productivity
- Savings through reduced training time

RESULTS

Accelerated Learning methodology has been highly effective and an extremely good return on our training investment. Dollars are saved through reduced training time and also through people's ability to apply the knowledge they have learnt.

Once a range of Accelerated Learning skills have been mastered they can be applied widely in communication, product development and customer interaction.

E.V. HR Project Leader, Government Department

In my opinion, Tim Maples is one of the leading practitioners of Accelerated Learning in New Zealand today. Having worked with Tim over the past two and a half years, both attending his courses and utilising his consultancy skills, it is a real pleasure to see his vast practical knowledge in print.

Everything Tim has had to say about Accelerated Learning has added a new dimension to my training enjoyment and results. I can therefore recommend this kit without reservation. If you want to know more about Accelerated Learning you're looking in the right place!

TIM MAPLES

Tim, a Christchurch born New Zealander has practised and taught whole brain learning since 1974. As a Downhill Ski racer he was introduced to mind and body control techniques vital for success and survival at high speeds. An extensive six months Raja Yoga Teachers course in Southern India in 1974 gave him his first in-depth experience of the power of the brain. The techniques learnt and practised assisted him to graduate top of his year at Lincoln University with near photographic memory recall in his final exams. The techniques learnt and practised assisted Tim to graduate top of his year at Lincoln University with near photographic memory recall in his final exams. Management, business and facilitation skills were developed as a part-owner operator of a multi-million dollar service organisation in California during a seven-year period in the eighties. Since that time, he has worked as an international corporate facilitator specialising in Leadership Development, High Performance Teams, Strategy Facilitation, Creativity and Business Innovation. Tim has presented nationally and internationally at conferences including the NZ Association of Training and Development (1991, 1993, 1995, Convenor of Conference 1998), International Alliance for Learning USA (1991, 1993, 1995) and the American Society for Training and Development (1995). Tim has studied personally with Dr Georgi Lozanov, Dr Ivan Barzakov, Dr Jean Houston and Swami Gitananda.

Tim is Director of the Inova Group based in Nelson, New Zealand.
